BUILDING PROJECTS APPROVED.

Trustees of Clemson College Authorized New Hospital and Laundry.

Clemson College, July 14.—By reason of the increase in the fertilizer tag tax this year, the board of trustees of Clemson College at the annual summer meeting recently held felt itself able to authorize several improvements and developments, which had been put off for several years. These include a new hospital an addition to the engineering building, the new athletic field, improvements on the Coast Experiment Station and a new steam laundry.

The improvements authorized with the amounts are as follows: Fifteen thousand dollars for a hospital which is much needed. The present hospital building will be converted into a four-apartment house.

Fifteen thousand dollars toward the new $75,000 Y. M. C. A. building for which Rockefeller will give $50,000 and for which $10,000 in pledges have been secured at Clemson College.

Five thousand dollars for a 50-foot addition to the engineering building.

Appropriations for instituting a livestock division at the Coast Experiment station near Summerville and for deepening the drainage outlet at the station.

Appropriations for a new and larger steam laundry to do the work for the cadets and the campus community.

The board of trustees also authorized the president and faculty to issue certificates of merit, not more than two per year, to farmer who render distinguished service in agricultural advancement.

The meeting was a large one, all trustees being present excepting Messrs. R. L. Manning and E. T. Hughes.

IS A GREAT PICTURE

The Million Dollar Mystery Is the Very Best of All.

Editor The Intelligencer.

"The Million Dollar Mystery," a serial motion picture play which will be shown at the R. C. in Anderson is a great picture.

The first two installments have been shown in Columbia and many were denied admittance to the Pastime Theatre where they are presented.

With such stars as Florence La Dode, Marguerite Brown, Lila Chester, James Cruze and others the actors and acting of the photoplay is well done.

All Anderson could see these pictures. "The Million Dollar Mystery" so far has all the other serials beaten in my opinion.

SAGE TEA DARKENS HAIR TO ANY SHADE

Gray Hair Here's a Simple Recipe That Anybody Can Apply With a Hair Brush.

The use of Sage and Sulphur for coloring faded, gray hair to its natural color dates back to grandmother's time. She used it to keep her hair beautifully dark, glossy and abundant.

Whenever her hair fell out or broke on that dull, faded or streaked appearance, this simple mixture was applied with wonderful effect.

But brawling at home is messy and out-of-date. Nowadays, by asking at any drug store for a 60-cent bottle of "Wyn's Sage and Sulphur Hair Remedy," you will get this famous old recipe which can be depended upon to restore natural color and beauty to the hair and is splendid for dandruff, dry, feverish, itchy scalp and falling hair.

A well known down-town druggist says it darkens the hair so naturally and evenly that nobody can tell it has been applied. You simply dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one strand at a time. By morning the gray hair disappears, and after another application or two, it becomes beautifully dark, glossy, soft and abundant.

RAILROAD MEN MAKE DEMANDS

WILL GO ON STRIKE IF RAILROADS REFUSE TO ACCEDE

MILLIONS AT STAKE

Officials Contend That Demands Would Mean Increase in Wages of $33,000,000 Annually

Chicago, July 14.—The threatened strike of engineers and firemen on ninety eight western railroads still was in the balance tonight, although the men had voted nearly unanimously to strike if necessary to sustain their demands and that arbitration under the Federal law would not be accepted.

The railroads, through their general manager's committee, contend that to grant the employees' demand would mean an increase of $33,000,000 annually in wages. The engineers and firemen say that their requests are fair and equitable.

It is expected that further conferences will be held. Should negotiations fail and the employees stand by their announcement, the resulting strike would directly affect 55,000 engineers and firemen and indirectly a much larger number of workers.

The issues involved. The principal requests made by the employees of the roads were: Increasing in the rates of pay of engineers and firemen in all phases of service.

Number of hours after which overtime will be paid in freight service be reduced from ten to eight hours and in passenger service from 10 to 6 hours.

Overtime be raised to a basis of time and a half in freight service and double time in passenger service.

Engineers and firemen be paid an arbitrary thirty minutes preparatory time for each trip, instead of computing service continuously from actual time from reporting for duty.

Allowances be made for terminal delays in addition to payment for the miles or the hours of the trip.

Differentials paid for running mail engines be increased.

Differentials between local freight service be increased.

Two firemen be employed on large coal burning engines regardless of the character or length of the run the locomotive makes or the work required of the fireman.

For the Railroads. Chicago, July 14.—Conferees between the managers' committee, and the engineers and firemen of the ninety-eight railroads west of Chicago, will not be reopened, except at the request of the roads, representatives of the men announced tonight.

Backed by a nearly unanimous vote for a strike the men now hold that only by the railroads yielding can a strike that might become the most extensive and disastrous in American railroad history be averted. The result of the referendum vote will be presented to the general managers' committee in writing tomorrow.

FEDERAL MONEY TO MOVE CROPS

Millions May Soon Be Placed By the Government As Done Last Year

Washington, July 14.—Thousands of National banks already have replied to Secretary McAdoo's letter asking the opinion of bankers through out the country as to the advisability of lending government funds to banks to move crops.

Many bankers urged the lending of government funds, as was done last year, when about $37,000,000 was loaned to banks by the treasury department.

Mr. McAdoo also asked a number of other questions in his general letter. He sought advice as to the best centers for distribution of the money and the localities where it would be most needed. Clerks now are busy tabulating the replies.

It now seems unlikely that the federal reserve board will be organized immediately and Secretary McAdoo will not have the advice in arranging for crop movement money. While the three members of the board already confirmed will be sworn in before July 21, it is probable the board will not be called to meet as a body until after the confirmation of the other two members.

It is generally believed that Milton C. Elliott, secretary to the organization committee, will be retained by the board as legal adviser. Mr. Elliott had also been mentioned as successor to Charles A. Hamlin as assistant secretary of the treasury.

SHOOT SWEETBERRY COMEBY SUICIDE

San Francisco, July 15.—Dorothy Wallace, a private, who was both in a race today, George M. Austin, a sailor on the United States cruiser West Virginia, shot her through the body and then killed himself. Miss Wallace has slight chance of recovery.

Austin, who had just returned from a cruise, alleged that the young woman had been ready to elope with him, and was making attentions from other men.

RICHARDS HAD AIKEN CROWD

NOISY DEMONSTRATION UPON HIS ATTACK ON E. D. SMITH

A LIVELY TIME

The Crowd Whooped 'Em Up for Quite a While When This Happened

(Special to The Intelligencer.)

Aiken, July 14.—The continued calm of the campaign for State office was rudely broken when scenes of disorder were enacted by a crowd of probably 1,000 people here today following the denunciation of United States Senator Ellison D. Smith, by John G. Richards, candidate for governor, shortly before an otherwise quiet meeting was brought to a close.

Factional interest was aroused to a high pitch when Richards made his usual declaration in favor of Governor Bleasdale of the United States senate, which drew prolonged cheers. He then began reading a statement attacking the statement credited to Senator Smith that he had raised the price of cotton.

"Cries of 'Hurrah for Smith,' 'Hurrah for Bleasdale,' 'Hurrah for Richards' came from the crowd.

"Why did you raise the express rates," came the cry from a man directly in front of Richards.

"You lie," came the heated reply, from the speaker.

"You are another," replied the unknown man, who was later learned to be a resident of Blackville.

When the unknown man hurled back this reply, Richards hastily clutched a drinking glass and drew as if to hurl it at the interrupter.

A large number of excited persons hastily scrambled upon the stand and spoke to the crowd attempting to secure a hearing from Richards, while he continually repeated that he would read his attack on Senator Smith "if it takes me until night."

After the unknown man had been escorted from the crowd by a policeman, the crowd was finally quieted to an extent and Richards read his statement.

From John G. Clinckscale came the unequivocal statement today that he is not advocating state-wide prohibition. In reply to Lowndes J. Browning, who called upon the Spartanburg candidate for a definition of his views.

"I believe South Carolina has suffered from the lack of constructive legislation because of the under agitation of the liquor question, and I favor enforcement of the present law," declared Clinckscale.

That state wide prohibition is an issue that should be brought into the campaign for governor was asserted by Charles A. Smith, who advocated that idea.

Several exhortations of the "open lawlessness in this state" was made by Robert A. Manning, made statements criticizing the manner in which Governor Bleasdale has exercised the pardoning power.

He stressed law enforcement, and realization of the educational advantages of the State by giving greater appropriations to their financially weaker counties were among the other issues of the campaign.

Compulsory education was urged by John G. Clinckscale, while other candidates for governor opposed any form of compulsory education or advocated submission to the people of the local option form.

Among the candidates tonight the principal subject of conversation was the sudden and entirely unexpected outbreak of factionalism here with evidence of a large majority at the meeting today.

URIC ACID IN MEAT CLOGS THE KIDNEYS

Take a Glass of Salt if Your Back Hurts or Bladder Bothers You. Drink More Water.

If you must have your meat every day, eat it, but flush your kidneys with salts occasionally, says a noted authority who tells us that meat forms uric acid which almost invariably clogs the kidneys in their efforts to keep it from the blood. They become sluggish and weaken, then you suffer with a dull misery in the kidney region, sharp pains in the back or side, headache, dizziness, your stomach sour, tongue is coated, and when the weather is bad you have rheumatic twinges.

The uric acid clogs, fills, and irritates, the channels often even more and irritates, obliging you to seek relief two or three times during the night.

To neutralize these irritating acids to cleanse the kidneys and flush out the body's urinous waste, get four ounces of Jad Salts from any pharmacy. Take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys will then be free.

This famous salts is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for generations to flush and cleanse the kidneys, also to neutralize the acids in the urine, so if you have uric acid this ending bladder weakness, Jad Salts is inexpensive, cannot injure, and makes a deliciously effective cathartic.

Get a glass of salt if your back hurts or bladder bothers you. Drink more water.

French Champion Heartily Cheered
London, July 14.—Georges Carpentier, the French champion, who will meet Gusman Smith, the American heavy weight, in a 20 round fight at Olympia Thursday, came to London today. He was given a demonstration that for size and enthusiasm would not have been accorded a popular foreign monarch.

Traffic in the Strand was completely blocked. Horses were unharnessed and perspiring French admirers dragged their hero's carriage to a hotel, followed by an immense crowd that cheered most of the way.

Carpentier was compelled to show himself on the balcony of the hotel. Here he roared another vociferous reception. When seen later, Carpentier said:
